WELCOME TO OUR GUESTS

Our guests today are the members of the Suitland (Maryland) High School Football Team.

The Suitland Team, better known as the Rams, posted a record of five wins, three losses, and one tie last season. (This record is identical to Wakefield's last season.) Suitland lost to Northwestern High School (our opponent next week) in the Prince George's County play-offs last fall.

The Scarlet and White Rams are opening their football season today with enough letter-men back to label them as a stronger squad than last year.

Suitland High School has an enrollment of some 1350 students from grades nine through twelve, and is in its fifth year of operation.

Best of luck to Coach Fedora and his Scarlet and White Rams today.

* * *

Again as last week, Mr. Stein's Cross-Country Team will run an inter-squad meet at half time.

There's nothing like a Coke!
